I died in real life while playing this game!. The Evil Within is a great game and definately one for fans of the horror genre or who like puzzles mixed into their action games.

- Characters are interesting and enjoyable to be around
- The music fits the game really well. especially the safe room themes
- Puzzles and problem solving play a big role like good old survival horror games
- Lots of guns to use and upgrade
- Boss fights are varied. unique and require different strategies to beat
- No cheap. predictable jump scares
- Tons of collectables from keys, map tiles and achievements

NEUTRAL

- At the start you're slow and sluggish until you upgrade your skills
- Checkpoints aren't the most forgiving
- AI helpers aren't the most helpful
- Some puzzles require you to use your limited ammo supply \(shooting switches etc\)

CON

- During certain parts you are forced to move/open doors/use medkits slowly which takes ages
- Some filters can hurt your eyes \(eg. a room that causes the screen to go out of focus\)

- Sebastian's jog animation just looks really strange to me
- Items in boxes randomise upon checkpointing

7/10. I HATE EVERYTHING ABOUT THIS GAME!!!

1. Boss fights are ridiculously boring and not satisfying
2. Zombies or what the hell they are. I am just tired of killing these freaks every second of the game and they are dealing unreasonable damage even you are dealing with same one
3. The plot is just a gibberish
4. Even you upgrade nothing is changing (not really effective) another nonsense, too
5. This game is just a torture (checkpoints are driving me crazy when I am middle of the game it just restarts again when I die)
6. Not scary at all. I bought this game because it is an horror game but I haven't frightened at all. Horror parts are just a cheap tricks.
7. Load screens are freaking loong. It lasts almost 6-7 seconds and believe if you are playing this game you are going to die alot.

Those are my personal thoughts about this game and it is a relief that I can write my ideas about this game maybe I have flamed alot. Truth to be told, I regret every second I have spend while I am playing this pointless game.. Excellent, very enjoyable survivor horror/action game:

*Gun-play is really good but resource management is important as ammo in some areas is scarce

*Excellent set pieces and boss fights throughout the game

*Story is weird and difficult to follow at times, but the characters and voice acting keep it very interesting

*Good length campaign (13-15 hours)

*Game looks really good, however the camera control can be a nightmare at times

*Easily worth a purchase. This is, hands down, the absolute worst game I have ever played.

I can't even be bothered to write a full review, because I've wasted enough time on this garbage already. The horror doesn't come from the visuals or the gameplay, but from the sh*ttiest writing and story, sh*ttiest game mechanics, and the sh*ttiest of game engines. Gotta love that id Tech texture pop-in on every camera angle change that brings back memories of RAGE back in 2011.

I got to Chapter 5 before I gave up. Here's half a dozen things that annoyed me:

1. "Use the mouse to look around" but don't actually do it because we're forcing the camera up anyway.
2. Let's open doors slowly because it's SpOoOoOoOoKy and repeat the same stupid startled animation anytime something happens.
3. Having to wait for the animation to finish before being able to grab the next stat upgrade.
4. Inching forward towards that trap to disarm it. Oh, Sebastian is just going to walk into it and die instead? Cool.
5. Stepping into bear traps that have inexplicably reset themselves after an enemy triggers it right in front of you.
6. Cutscene starts with Sebastian crouched in front of a bomb trap. Trap starts beeping when the cutscene starts, and when the cutscene ends, Sebastian dies immediately from the explosion because he's no longer crouched.

And that's where I Alt+F4'd out and uninstalled.

This game and its sequel are, in essence, watching Shinji Mikami jerk himself off in front a mirror. Enjoy all those throwbacks to his previous games (you know, the same ones we've been seeing since the PS1 era). They'll remind you how much better those games are and that you should be playing those instead of this clusterf*ck of recycled garbage.

Jackie Earl Haley (Freddy Krueger) voicing Ruvik is one of the best things ever

For everyone who wants to play the game with 60fps no Vsync:

Properties > set launch options > put in "+com_allowconsole 1" (without ") > start the game > press "insert" on your keyboard (It's located above your arrow keys) > the console will pop up and now all you have to do is put in "R_swapinterval 1" (Without " of course)

There you go! Enjoy playing with 60fps! :)
